EPF Celebrates Fiftieth

The Episcopal Peace Fellowship celebrated it's fiftieth anniversary on the weekend of November 11th. Conferences were held in both Washington, D.C. and Berkeley, California. The anniversary featured the publication of a history of the fellowship, The Voice of Conscience, A Loud and Unusual Noise? The subtitle referred to the court's characterization of the holy eucharist conducted at the Pentagon during the Vietnam war, at which many EPF members were arrested. Bill Yolton conveyed NISBCO's congratulations to the Washington gathering. Washington Post columnist and pacifist educator, Colman McCarthy, provided the keynote address. ■

Standing Up for Peace CONTEST

Why have some people risked their jobs, their homes, their families and even prison to take a stand for peace? This is your chance to find out. The Standing Up for Peace Contest invites you to talk face to face with someone who has refused to fight in war, pay taxes for war, or build weapons for war, and to hear what it's like to take a stand and risk the consequences.

In this contest, you're asked to interview someone who has said no to war, and then to express what you think and feel about what you heard by writing something or creating a work of art or music.

The contest is open to young people ages 15-23. The deadline for entries is May 1, 1990.

To enter, send for the Standing Up for Peace Contest Booklet, Fellowship of Reconciliation, Box 271, Nyack, NY 10960, (914) 358-4601.

Standing Up for Peace is a project of the 1990 Celebration of Conscience Committee. Co-sponsors include: CCCO/An Agency for Draft and Military Counseling, Conscience and Military Tax Campaign, Fellowship of Reconciliation, Mennonite Central Committee, Midwest Committee for Military Counseling, National Interreligious Service Board for Conscientious Objectors, National War Tax Resistance Coordinating Committee, Peace Tax Foundation, War Resisters League.
